

Frank Crawford

Frank Crawford is the majority shareholder and president of Crawford & Associates. He specializes in providing accounting and consulting services solely in governmental accounting and financial management. Over the years, Frank has assisted both the AICPA and GASB in the development of several implementation guides as a member of an advisory group, task force or technical content provider. Frank is a highly sought-after lecturer, trainer and discussion leaders for many groups including U.S. Federal Government Agencies, various local and national CPA firms, State Societies, AICPA professional education videos and more.